STAT

As you know, after I received your letter of 30 April expressing your interest in civilian service with this Agency, I asked [redacted] talk with you more specifically about your background and to review the possibilities of a suitable opening on our staff for you.

The results of this consideration have been reported to me and I regret to advise you that there appears to be no opportunity for us to take advantage of your interest and offer to be of service. I am sure that [redacted] explained to you that most of our recruitment is conducted at the junior officer level and that occasions for employing men of more substantial background are few in number.

Thank you again for writing to me. It was good to hear from you.

Sincerely,
